The move: the push. In the chorus each bar holds two chords, and the second one comes early, on the “and” of 2. Count it: 1 and 2 AND 3 and 4 and. Same four chords as “Thank You for Your Love,” same key. Here the chorus starts on the 4 and leans ahead. That lean is the worship feel.

Chords read off the recording’s keyboard and bass parts. Every chord is a proposal. Your ear decides. Worship color: add the 9 (the 2) on Bb and Eb, and let Fsus4 settle to F. The song ends on Gm (the 6). Some hear it as Bb6, the same notes. Play along with the No Keys practice mix. · gospelpianopath.com
